Information on access regulations and parking rules for coaches

Dear Sir/Madam,

the Salzburg Festival would like to inform you about the regulations for parking and access to the “Hofstallgasse” due to new legal requirements (05/04/55261/2006/030 City of Salzburg):

“According to the limited space available for coaches at the Max-Reinhardt-Platz only 6 permits per Festival performance will be issued to coach companies which have received large ticket allocations and have a longer journey to Salzburg. Only those coach drivers who can show this permit will be given access to the “Hofstallgasse” by the police. These regulations have been set up in order to guarantee the access of buses that are fully or nearly fully occupied.

In case Festival performances coincide concerning at the beginning or end, also only 6 permits will be issued. In addition guests can also get off the buses at the stops of public transport according to the legal provision of the traffic rules and regulations. In order to pick up the Festival guests, the bus terminals in the “Paris-Lodron-Strasse” and “Erzabt- Klotz-Strasse” are available.”
